CLEMENCE THAT

RAY CLEMENCE makes his European debut for Spurs on Wednesday and bids to make up a unique collection of winner's medals.

If Ray's considerable experience can help guide Tottenham to European Cup Winners' Cup glory
he will have won every single club honour available to him.

To date his incredible medals tally reads:

Three European Cup
Five League Championship
Two UEFA Cup
Two FA Cup
One League Cup

Ray, who collected that sparkling array in 14 glory years at Liverpool, admitted: "It would be great to complete the set. But that's really 'Roy of the Rovers' stuff."

The England goalkeeper believes that the Spurs defence will be on top of their game when they meet Ajax of Holland in the first round next week.

"I said after the Charity Shield match against Villa it would take about four weeks before the defence and I got used to each other. That means we'll be ready for Europe.

Ray Clemence talks about his new challenge at Spurs . . .
and his 'Roy of the Rovers' dream!

"Apart from club skipper Steve Perryman, the other members of the back four —
Graham Roberts, Paul Miller and Chris
Hughton — are relatively inexperienced.

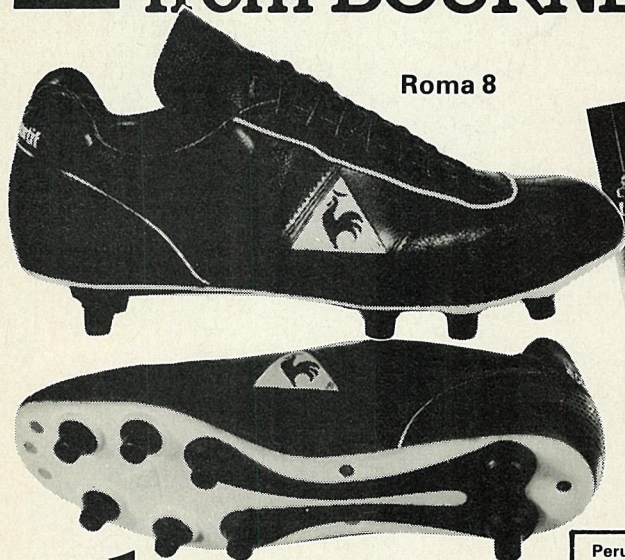

"I'm sure that I can help them and advise them of what to expect," said Ray.

And there'll be no shortage of conversation from the Spurs goal this season. Ray admits his new team-mates could have sore ears by the end of the campaign.

"I'll be telling them where I want them so that I have full command of my six yard box," he added.

helped restore his appetite for the game.

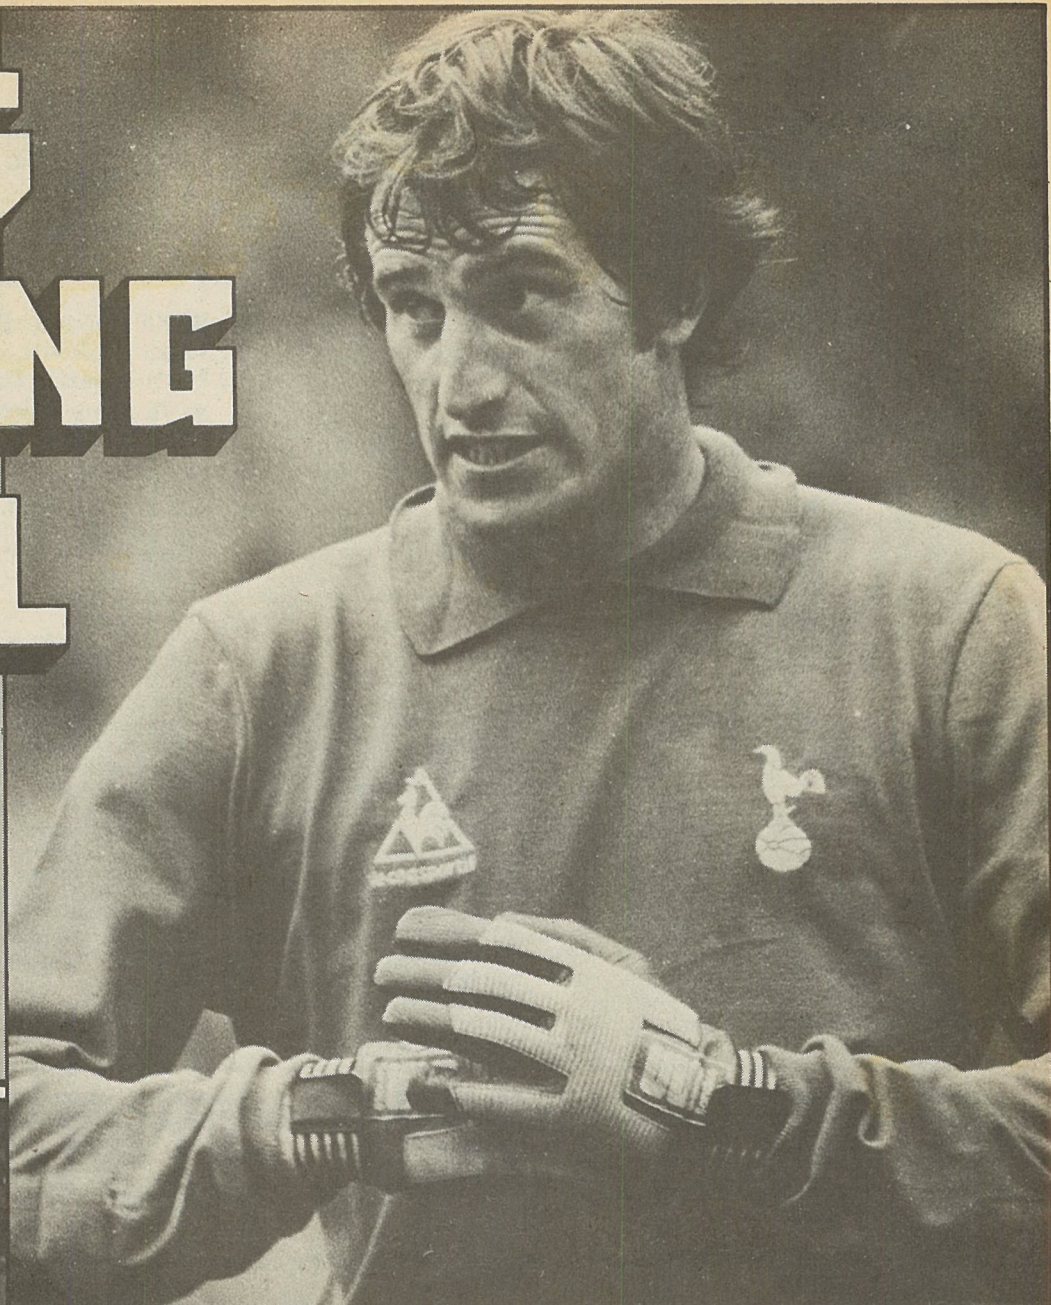

"With so much success at Anfield it became more difficult for me to motivate myself. I needed a new challenge."

But he assured Spurs fans that he has not arrived at White Hart Lane just to play out the rest of his career.

"I still want to win things and there's tremendous potential at Spurs to do just that," said Ray, who cost the club £300,000.

Ray has signed a three year contract which will take him to 36-years-old, but the keeper hopes to be playing long after that.

"I want to play till I'm 40 and as long as I can steer clear of injuries there's no reason why I shouldn't achieve that aim."

● Spurs new goalkeeper Ray Clemence — turned his back on Liverpool after 14 glory years.

Left: Disaster debut day for Clemence. Ray misses this cross in the Charity Shield at Wembley and Peter Withe nips in to score for Villa. The England keeper believes he and the defence will be knitted in time for Europe.

'I never saw my

MANCHESTER UNITED's new £900,000 striker Frank Stapleton wanted to start the new season abroad with a top continental club.

The Eire international admitted that he'd expected to follow his former Arsenal team-mate Liam Brady out of English soccer.

"I had set my sights on a foreign club and was disappointed when none of the top clubs came in for me.

"Following reports in the press I thought some of the Italians or Germans might come in with a bid," admitted the 26-year-old.

"When my contract expired at Arsenal I didn't see my future in England," he added.

But Frank hit out at claims he'd held Arsenal to ransom with extravagant wage demands.

"There were a lot of reports flying about that I was asking Arsenal for much more money, but that's just not true. I never asked for anything.

"As I was at the end of my contract I was entitled to listen to offers. I let each interested club make their bid and then went home and considered each one very carefully.

"I'd be lying if I said money didn't come into it, but that wasn't the main consideration.

"It would have been easy for me to have stayed at Arsenal — but after nine years I felt I wanted a new challenge.

"I had stayed at Highbury I would never have known if I was right or wrong to move — at least I've tried," Frank continued.

And with offers from Liverpool and Man. Utd as well as Arsenal, Frank describes his decision as 'The most important of my career'.

"As soon as I became available I met both Liverpool and United, but the management at Anfield didn't follow up their original inquiry until it was too late.

"By the time they came back into the reckoning everything was signed and sealed with United," he explained.

However he's sure that he's made the right move to Old Trafford and is looking forward to spearheading United's assault on the First Division title.

"New manager Ron Atkinson is ambitious and wants to win things. I hope I can help him achieve some success."

Frank hopes that the Old Trafford fans won't expect too much from him too soon.

"It will take me a while to settle down and get used to United's style of play but I'm looking forward to it."

United could have signed the striker when he was 16 but they sent him back to Ireland after a week's trial.

"They could certainly have got me a lot cheaper," joked Frank. "But they do say you have to pay for your mistakes.

"I went over to Old Trafford with Birmingham's David Langan but neither of us were accepted. There were so many other good youngsters around at the time."

My boyhood dream come true

SIGNING for Manchester United was the realisation of a boyhood dream for Frank Stapleton.

The Dublin born player admits: "When I was at school Manchester United were the only team for me — and they still have a special appeal."

The only blot on the signing was the time it took the whole deal between Arsenal and United to go through.

"Because the two clubs couldn't agree a fee it meant an independent tribunal would have to fix the price and that meant an agonising wait.

"It was a worrying time for me but I accept that it's the system I have to abide by."

And United must be rubbing their hands with glee after the tribunal's decision. For they got a striker of international standing for £900,000 — and it was reported that Arsenal wanted close on £2m.

"It does seem that United got the better deal," admits Frank. "But that's got nothing to do with me.

"My only concern is to do well with my new club. I won't suffer any extra pressure because of the size of the fee," he added.

"The newspapers always make a big issue out of the pressure big money players are supposed to be under.

"But I don't believe it. The fee wasn't decided by me and that sort of thing doesn't have anything to do with the players. It's a matter between clubs concerned."

I started my League career with Watford. Now turn to page 11 for the next clue.

This will

I AM already convinced that this season will be my best ever for scoring goals in the First Division.

I managed to score 11 goals last season as a midfielder coming forward to support the attack.

But this season I will be playing as an out-and-out striker. And I am already confident that I will beat my previous best of 13 League goals, set with Liverpool before I left them to play in Germany with Hamburg.

It's the first time I have played right up front like this and I am looking forward to the challenge.

I got off to a great start in my new role by scoring in the opening game of the season at Nottingham Forest.

Steve Williams played a good ball up to me and I managed to turn past my marker and round Peter Shilton before shooting into the empty net.

It felt great to score in the very first game of the season . . . and particularly against such a great goalkeeper as Peter.

Although we eventually lost that game 2-1, the Saints played very well and I felt we should have come away with something.

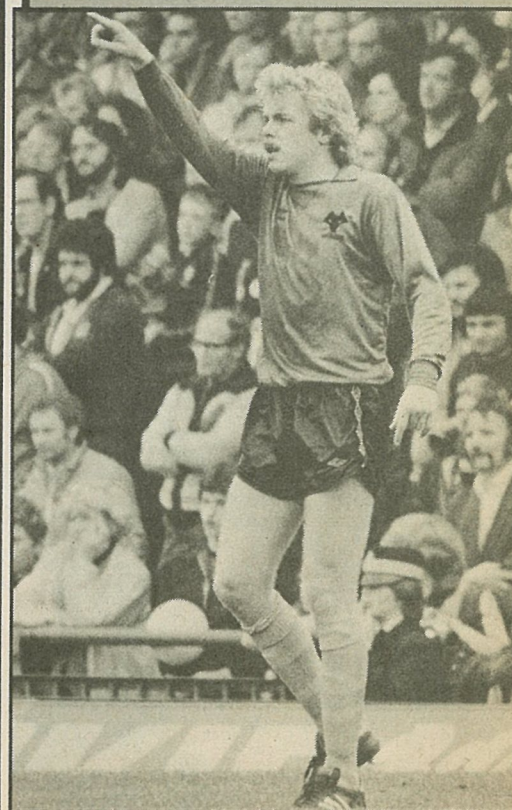

In my column in the August 29 issue of Match Weekly I tipped Forest to win something this season. After playing them I stick by my prediction, though I don't think they will win the League.

Another team to impress me is Wolves, who we played in our second game of the season. It was a great game for me because I scored another goal and we really gave our fans something to cheer in our first home match by running out 4-1 winners.

Despite the scoreline, Wolves were very good.

They are going to beat a lot of teams this season and I can see how they beat Liverpool

Paul Bradshaw of Wolves . . . a goalkeeper I like. He made some great saves against us at the Dell.

6 MATCH WEEKLY

be my best season for goals

predicts Match columnist

KEVIN KEEGAN

on the opening Saturday.

With a player the calibre of John Richards on the substitutes' bench they can't be badly off. I particularly like the 'keeper Paul Bradshaw, who made some great saves — especially in the second half.

Joe Gallagher, their new £350,000 signing from Birmingham, has toughened them up at the back, although their other new signing, Alan Birch from Chesterfield, didn't seem to get going and was taken off.

Alan scored a lot of goals for Chesterfield but he will need time to settle and, to be fair, in our game he didn't get much service.

Our own new signing, David Armstrong, played his first game against Wolves after being unavailable through illness the previous Saturday . . . and what a great debut it was.

David has definitely added something to the team.

Another debut boy was young Mark Whitlock, who had the unenviable task of marking that fiery Scots striker, Andy Gray.

They don't come much tougher than Andy, but Mark did his job well and I'm sure he's a name to watch out for in the future.

Playing up front with me is Steve Moran and I was particularly pleased to see him score his first of the season against Wolves.

Steve exploded on to the First Division last season with 18 League and 3 FA Cup goals. But the question everyone is asking is: 'Can he do it again now that defenders know what he is capable of?'

I really believe he can. This season will be a real test of character for him but Steve is a fighter. He gives everything he has and he is a very good finisher. Hopefully we can help each other get among the goals.

Going on the early results, it's going to be a very interesting season. While champions Aston Villa lost their first two games and Liverpool managed only one point out of the first six, First Division newcomers Swansea proved they really mean business with two emphatic victories.

The success of Swans boss John Toshack hasn't really surprised me. Of all the people I have played with he is the one I fancied most to make a good manager.

He is ambitious, knows exactly what he wants and he can handle people well. He knows the pressures in the top flight and I think he bought well before the start of the season.

Bob Latchford was a good example. I always found Bob good to play with for England and it is nice to see him doing well again at his new club.

Bob played only 18 First team games for Everton last season but after his four goals in Swansea's first two games the £150,000 fee looks a real give-away.

Of course, it is early days yet and I doubt that Swansea will be able to maintain their fantastic start.

Having said that, I remember people saying the same thing about Nottingham Forest when they came up from the Second Division in 1977 — and they went on to win the Championship!

One thing's for sure in my mind . . . they won't be struggling to stay up, simply because they are better than some of the other teams.

I am just happy that we don't have to play them in our first half dozen games. That's when they are going to be hardest to beat.

The same goes for Notts County, who silenced all their critics with a 1-0 win at Aston Villa on the opening day.

And who would have put money on West Ham putting four past Spurs in their second game of the season at White Hart Lane!

The time to play these sides is a bit later in the season when they may have lost some of their momentum.

Great day for Ipswich

IPSWICH'S three-year sponsorship agreement with Pioneer High Fidelity (GB) Ltd, worth in the region of £400,000, will help fund a new stand at Portman Road.

The extension to the stand on the west side of the ground will provide 5,000 extra seats and it should be ready for the start of next season.

It will be built around the existing stand so as to avoid too much discomfort for the fans this season.

The deal also includes a visit by Ipswich to Japan for an exhibition match.

In announcing the scheme, Ipswich vice-chairman Mr John Cobbold said it was one of the greatest days for the club.

ONE of the surprise omissions from the quarter finals of the new Group Cup is First Division newcomers Notts County. They could only finish third in the section topped by Fourth Division Peterborough after losing to the winners and Norwich. The quarter-final draw is: Burnley v Watford, Bradford v Shrewsbury, Peterborough v Wimbledon, Newport v Grimsby. The matches are to be played in the week commencing December 7.

Tight for the 'Tigers'

HULL City players, with the exception of one, have taken a pay cut and even manager Mike Smith has had his salary trimmed.

Says the former Wales manager: "Everyone must share the blame for our decline."

Hull were relegated to the Fourth Division last season for the first time in their history.

The one outsider is top scorer Keith Edwards who is on a weekly contract: "I'm scoring goals so I'm worth a rise," he says.

Match Chat

Brady's reminder

JUVENTUS star Liam Brady (pictured right) gave his former Arsenal colleagues a reminder of his talents in the recent prestige friendly in Italy.

The Eire skipper scored both goals for the Italian champions in the 2-2 draw, and Brian Talbot did likewise for the Londoners.

Kamara out — Williams in THIRD Division Portsmouth have spent £50,000 on Swindon skipper Chris Kamara — just four years after selling him to the County Ground for just £17,000!

Swindon manager John Trollope immediately spent all but £10,000 of the money to buy Blackpool full back Gary Williams.

Goal-starved Annfield!

SCOTTISH Second Division club Stirling, who recently made the Guinness Book of Records after 14 games without a goal, are hoping to provide their goal-starved fans with something to shout about this season.

They lost their opening home match of the season 1-0 to Forfar in the League Cup, which meant they hadn't scored in front of their home fans since New Year's Day against Ayr... and that was a penalty.

Ironically, Stirling's home ground is called Annfield, which is the only comparison which can be drawn with European Champions Liverpool.

DAVE'S LAST POST!

FORMER Fulham defender Dave Moreline, who was given a free transfer at the end of last season by Third Division Reading, has quit football to become a postman.

The 30-year-old player has taken over the postman's duties in the Berkshire village of Southend and he has no regrets about turning his back on soccer.

"When I had a knee operation at the end of 1977 I was told I wouldn't play again, so the last three years have been something of a bonus," he says.

"I could have played on, but with unemployment as it is I decided it was best to get a job now."

Arsenal finally give in ARSENAL — in the past the staunchest opponents of football sponsorship — have finally given in.

For the next three seasons the famous 'Gunners' will be sponsored by video and hi-fi equipment manufacturers JVC and will wear the company's initials on their shirts.

Arsenal chairman Denis Hill-Wood said: "I have always been dead against it, but now I realise Arsenal must take advantage of every single economic proposition put towards us."

"I was against it because I thought clubs would lose their identity. Now I'm happy to say I've changed my mind."

With the money from the deal — believed to be as much as £600,000 — Arsenal are building an indoor training centre which they say will also be used by the youngsters of North London.

Milburn's memoirs

JACKIE Milburn and Newcastle United have been synonymous in the minds of thousands of soccer fans since the early 1950s, when, in three dazzling FA Cup finals at Wembley, he revealed himself as one of the most exciting goalscorers they had ever seen.

He played his last game for Newcastle in 1957, but he has remained closely involved with the club ever since.

And now he has produced a souvenir scrapbook of his days with Newcastle called simply: 'Jackie Milburn's Newcastle United Scrapbook'.

It's packed with unusual photographs and a host of personal memories written by a legendary Geordie figure whose name has been associated with Newcastle United for nearly forty years.

The book is published by Souvenir Press and is priced £6.95 (hardback) and £4.95 (paperback).

'Forest were made for me'

JUSTIN Fashanu thinks he was made for Nottingham Forest — and they feel the same about him.

The 20-year-old Young England striker signed for Forest on the eve of the season as football's youngest £1m man.

But Forest manager Brian Clough is in no doubt that Fashanu has the ability to develop into a full international.

He revealed: "It was a hectic time for Justin after he joined us at Forest, but the young man settled in remarkably quickly.

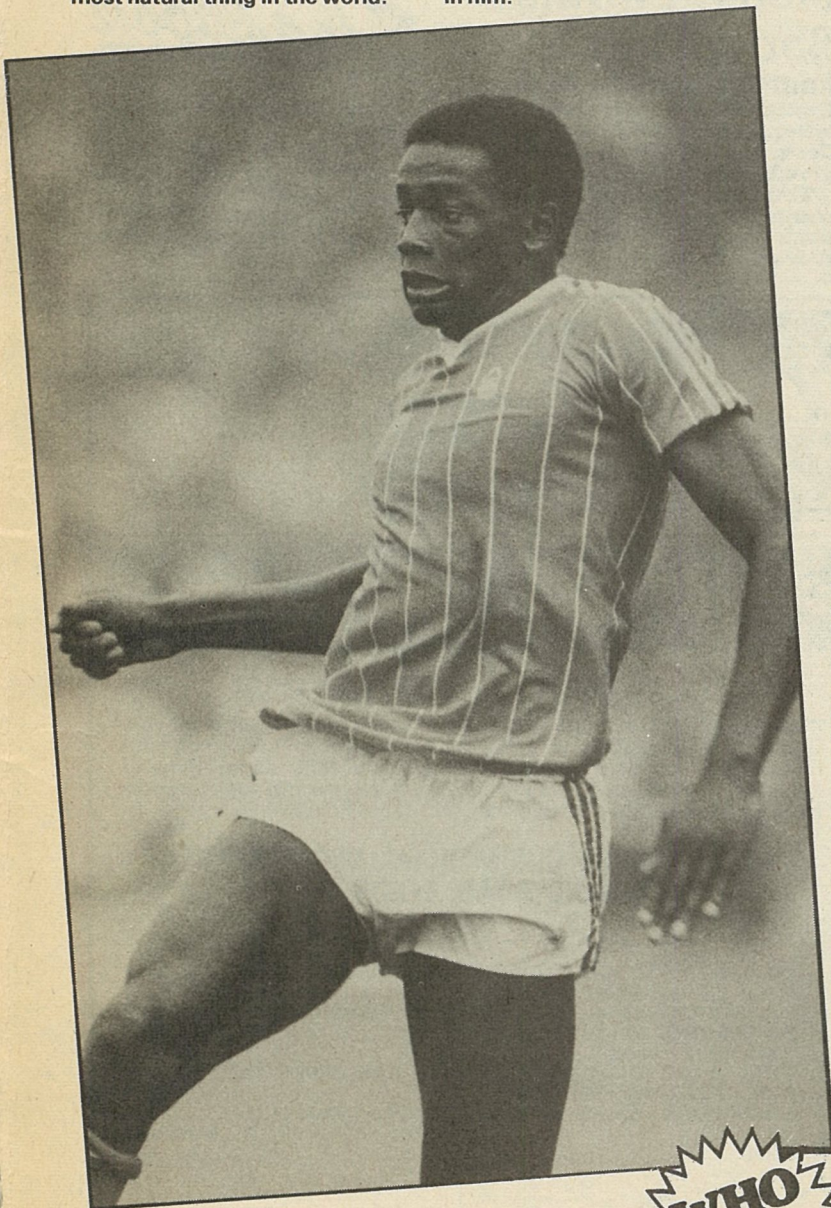

"When I signed him I knew all about his qualities, but I must admit I was a little bit concerned about his distribution. I've got no doubts now!

"In our opening games he was taking the ball on his chest, controlling it and laying it off in one movement as if it was the most natural thing in the world.

Match turns the spotlight on Justin Fashanu, of the £1 million-pound brigade.

"I'm looking forward to working with him for the next 10 years and I'm sure that Forest and England have got something really special in him."

Above: Forest boss Brian Clough watches his new signing from the dug-out on opening day: "Forest and England have something really special in Justin," he says.

Justin Fashanu in action for Forest: "There's no doubt that Brian Clough is a winner and I like to feel I am a winner too."

Justin, who admitted it was a wrench to leave the homely atmosphere of Carrow Road to move to the big-time with Forest, is enthusiastic about the challenge ahead.

He said: "I feel as though Forest were made for me. They remind me in a lot of ways of the Norwich set-up that I was used to but left behind to further my career.

"There was never any kick and rush at Norwich. We were always encouraged to play football and create our moves from the back.

"With due respect to the players at Carrow Road it's just the same at Forest only I'm now surrounded by top class stars.

Big names

"Being with Forest is just like being with an England squad — there are so many big names around the place and I feel sure we are going to be a force this season.

"Although we are not in Europe it didn't really bother me when it came to making up my mind about a move even though there were a number of clubs interested.

"When I met Brian Clough I was impressed with what he had to say and there's no doubt he's a winner. It's a feeling that rubs off on those around him and I like to think I'm a winner too.

"When I heard that Forest were interested I had a word with Martin O'Neill who was at Norwich at the time and he had nothing but good to say about the club and management.

"All I want to do now is get on with the job of being successful here at the City Ground."

Schuster and Stielike out

GERMAN stars Bernd Schuster and Uli Stielike have both been ruled out of West Germany's vital World Cup clash with Poland next month because of club commitments in Spain.

Schuster is wanted by Barcelona for the Rexach jubilee game and Stielike by Real Madrid.

Right: West German star Ulrich Stielike.

Fun-time Fiji lose their boss

TINY Fiji were in a holiday mood during their World Cup qualifying games in Australia and New Zealand — which probably accounts for their 10-0 and 13-0 defeats!

Their manager, English migrant Wally Hughes, was so disgusted by their attitude that he quit after the 10-0 thrashing in Australia.

But he was summoned to the team's motel before the New Zealand game because the players refused to leave after five of the squad had been kicked out for drinking instead of training.

Said Wally: "After we had drawn with Indonesia, the players didn't want to play any more.

"They were in holiday mood and wanted to relax like the managers.

"They threw the game in Australia, and in Auckland it was an absolute disgrace."

'Show-off' Rummenigge upsets Bruges

WEST German star Karl-Heinz Rummenigge upset some of the Bruges players with the way he scored a goal in Bayern Munich's recent 4-0 win against the Belgians in a French tournament.

A ball came across the face of the goal with the Bruges 'keeper stranded on the ground.

The blond striker could have easily sidefooted the ball home, but instead he flicked it into the air before heading it in.

Everyone was amused except the Bruges players, but Rummenigge said afterwards:

"The spectators have to pay very much to watch the game, so they have the right to be amused a little."

Fischer on target

KLAUS Fischer is well on the way back to the top.

The injury-prone West German star has been in good scoring form for Cologne.

He scored twice on his return in a practice game in which he showed up well with team mates Klaus Allofs and Littbarski.

GOLDEN GOAL

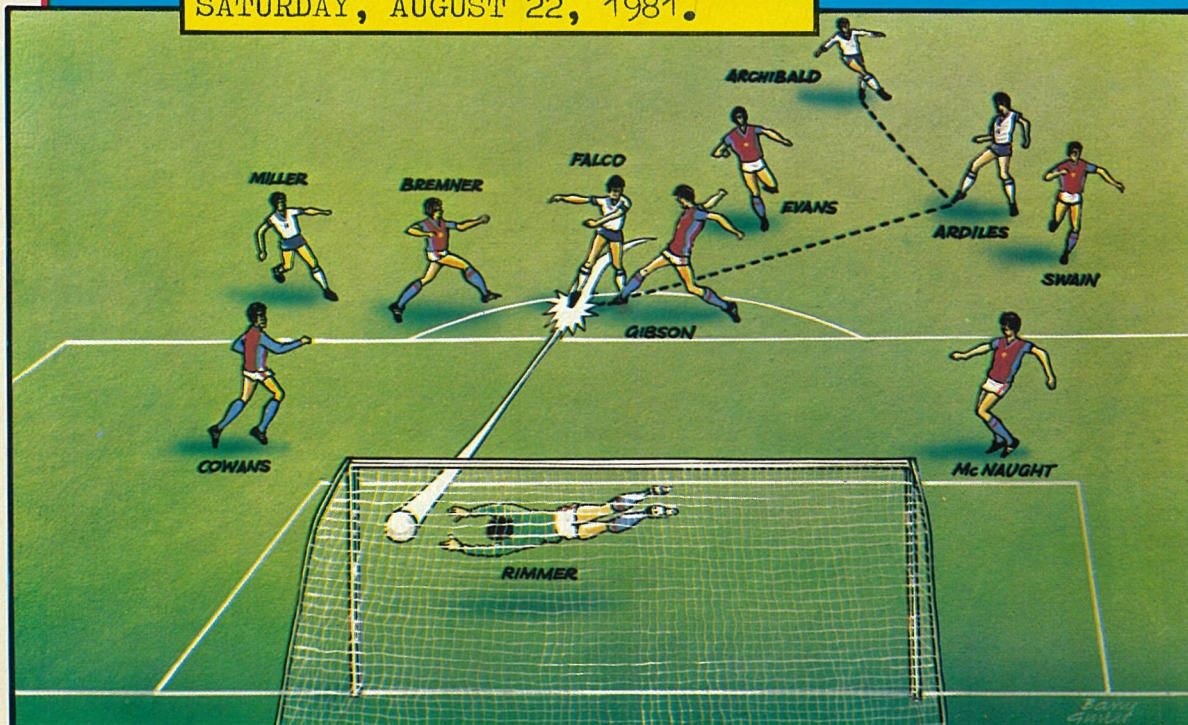

FALCO'S RIGHT ON TARGET

MARK FALCO (SPURS) V ASTON VILLA,

FA CHARITY SHIELD, WEMBLEY,

SATURDAY, AUGUST 22, 1981.

WEMBLEY wonder kid Mark Falco has found another use for his right foot — scoring goals!

The 20-year-old Spurs reserve admitted after scoring his thrilling first goal at Wembley: "I'm a natural left footer — I'd always considered my right foot was good for just standing on."

Mark, who scored both Spurs goals in their 2-2 Charity Shield draw with Villa, recalled:

"Ossie Ardiles played the ball to me on the edge of the box. I had my back to goal so I controlled it with my left foot, swung round and hit it with my right."

"It must rate as the best goal I've ever scored," said Mark, who took the place of injured Garth Crooks in the Spurs line-up.

It wasn't certain that the former England Youth international would play — a groin strain put him on the doubtful list until a day before the big match.

"I had intensive treatment throughout the week," said Mark, who sat on the substitute's bench and watched his team win the FA Cup Final last season.

Mark hopes his two goal Wembley performance will help establish him in the Spurs team.

"At the moment I'm just a squad player who comes in when others are injured. I've got to try and establish myself as a first team regular."

GRAEME

Elbowed into the first team at Middlesbrough

No — it's not another ticking off from the boss Jack Charlton. He's making a point to me during training!

MY GOOD friend Joe Laidlaw helped me back into the first team by breaking a Middlesbrough player's nose.

I had started Boro's highly successful 1973-74 season on the substitute's bench with no real prospect of breaking back into the side — until Joe gave me a helping hand.

Joe, who's now with Hereford, came down to Ayresome Park with Carlisle for the fourth game of the season and once again I found myself with the number 12 shirt.

But mid-way through the first half the former Middlesbrough player caught our midfield man Brian Turner with his elbow and Brian had to leave the field with a broken nose.

I came on in midfield and from that moment I never looked back. I played the rest of the season as Boro stormed to the Second Division title by a record 15 points.

There were periods — like I've since

STAR WRITES FOR YOU

SOUNESS

LIVERPOOL and Scotland star Graeme Souness continues his exciting life story. This week the Match columnist tells of his glory days at Middlesbrough and his brushes with Jack Charlton.

experienced at Liverpool — when we felt unbeatable. Much of that was to do with the way manager Jack Charlton ran things.

Middlesbrough's shock FA Cup defeat on my debut at Plymouth the previous season had signalled the end of manager Stan Anderson . . . and the arrival of 'Big' Jack.

Stan resigned his job at Ayresome Park just a month after signing me from Spurs and England trainer Harold Shepherdson was appointed caretaker manager until the end of the 1972-73 season.

Jack was a surprise selection as manager because he stepped straight into the job after hanging up his boots at Leeds.

And the players really knew it when he arrived!

Jack, who's now at Sheffield Wednesday, is a very demanding manager — he lets his feelings be known and he's not scared to tell players off.

He laid down what he expected and that's why I had a brush with him.

I was 19, a little rebellious and wasn't training as hard as I should.

He dropped me from the team and gave me a good talking to!

But after the Joe Laidlaw incident the season turned out to be one memorable moment after another . . . and here I've tried to pinpoint the personal highspots:

● October 8, 1973: Middlesbrough travel to Old Trafford and beat Man. Utd 1-0 thanks to a goal from Malcolm Smith.

In the United side that day were Martin Buchan, Brian Greenhoff (now Leeds), Gerry Daly (Coventry) and Lou Macari.

"There were periods — like I've since experienced at Liverpool — when we felt unbeatable."

● March 2, 1974: Boro complete the double over FA Cup holders and North East rivals Sunderland. Obviously we were jealous when they won the trophy the year before so it was a fantastic feeling to beat them twice.

● March 13, 1974: My form earns me a Scotland Under-23 call up and I play in a 2-0 defeat by England at Newcastle.

● March 19, 1974: We give former England captain Bobby Moore a miserable debut by hammering Fulham 4-0 at Craven Cottage and prove to the Southern press, who'd labelled us 'boring', that we can play.

● March 30, 1974: David Mills (now with West Brom) makes sure that we're in the First Division with the only goal of the game at Luton — SIX matches before the end of the season.

● April 20, 1974: Ayresome Park fans — all 25,287 of them — see us finish our home programme in style as we crush struggling Sheffield Wednesday 8-0. I also score the first

Right: Middlesbrough skipper Stuart Boam, who's now boss at Mansfield, gives me a lift to the local squash court!

Below right: Hereford's Joe Laidlaw — a friend who 'helped' me into the Middlesbrough first team by breaking a player's nose!

hat-trick of my League career.

● April 28, 1974: Middlesbrough players ride through the streets of the town in an open-topped bus with the Division Two championship trophy. It was one of the most memorable moments of my life.

● April 1974: Middlesbrough fans vote me their 'Player of the Year'. It's always a great honour to receive such awards because they're from the people who really matter.

I finished the season with seven goals, behind Alan Foggan (19) Middlesbrough favourite John Hickton and David Mills (both 11).

That championship-winning side also included David Armstrong (who's just gone to Southampton) and current 'Boro boss Bobby Murdoch, who Jack signed from Celtic.

IRWIN COMES OUT OF THE 'SHADOWS'

COLIN Irwin knew it was time to leave home town club Liverpool when manager Bob Paisley informed him that Swansea had made an offer.

"There had been talk in the past about clubs being interested in me, but this was the first time that the manager had told me about an offer," says the 24-year-old central defender.

"That seemed like a hint and I thought it was time for me to leave.

"The manager told me I was quite welcome to stay at Anfield, but on the other hand he said he was willing to let me go.

"So that's why I flew out to Yugoslavia to talk to Swansea manager John Toshack. If I hadn't been interested, I wouldn't have bothered to have flown all that way."

Now the £350,000 defender has the chance to establish himself in the First Division instead of being permanently in the shadows of Phil Thompson and Alan Hansen.

"Obviously it was frustrating knowing that however well I played it was back to the reserves once Phil and Alan were available again.

"I was prepared to give it another two months at Anfield, but after that I would have gone in to the manager to see about my future anyway.

"With Phil and Alan around it was obvious that my chances of first team football were once again going to be limited.

"It's not an easy job trying to make a name for yourself with your home town club, so that's why I'm going to try and make it with Swansea.

WRENCH

"It's a wrench leaving Liverpool for that's where I've spent all my life, but from the football point of view I've got a great chance to become a First Division player in my own right.

"I'm grateful to Liverpool for giving me a start in professional football because if you don't learn anything at Anfield, then you are walking round with your eyes closed.

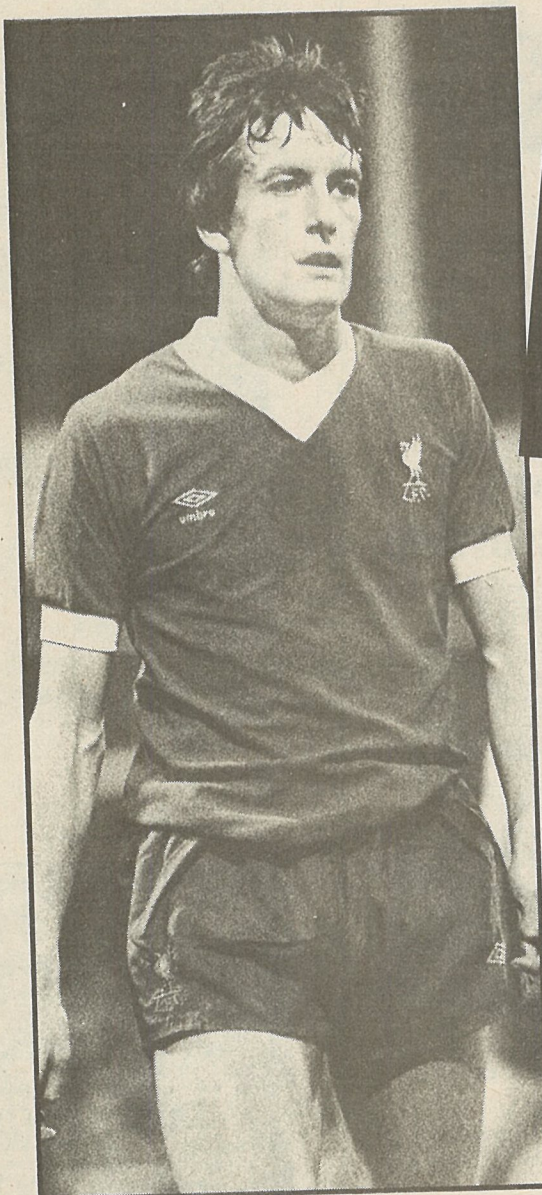

"And I'm hoping that the experience I've gained will enable me to help Swansea establish themselves in the First Division."

Colin, a former electrician who admits to being an Everton fan as a schoolboy, made 27 senior appearances last season, including two in the European Cup.

He replaced the injured Phil Thompson in the semi-final draw in Bayern Munich which took Liverpool through to the Final with Real Madrid, but then it was once again back on the subs bench.

"I knew I would be back on the bench for the final, but in my book we won the European Cup in Munich after being held to a goalless draw at Anfield," says Colin, who didn't turn professional until he was 20.

It's that added experience of European football that has probably prompted Colin Irwin is looking forward to making his name in the First Division with Swansea after being in the shadows at Liverpool.

Liverpool team mate John Toshack to make Colin the new captain at Vetch Field.

"It's going to be up to me to try and organise matters at the back because it's just as important to stop the goals as it is to score them.

"I just hope that I can do a good job for them."

Swansea City's new captain Colin Irwin tells Match why he knew it was time to leave Liverpool Wolves new signing Joe Gallagher — Spurs will be up against him on Saturday.

Left: Paul Price — made his League debut for Spurs on the opening day of the season at Middlesbrough.

'Give us a Clue'

SOME Match readers may have seen me recently on the television quiz show 'Give Us A Clue' hosted by Michael Aspel.

The show was actually recorded the day after Spurs won the FA Cup. As soon as the team had finished parading the trophy on the Sunday I had to rush off to Teddington.

Still it was a very enjoyable day.

HODDLE

The Spurs and England shooting star writes exclusively for you. Don't miss his column . . . only in Match.

ENJOY the game . . . cheer us on . . . but please behave yourselves. That's my plea to Spurs fans on the eve of our vital opening game in the European Cup Winners Cup against Ajax of Amsterdam.

Any trouble and we could get thrown out of the competition!

Crowd violence disgusts the players and while we will welcome all the backing we can get from our fans next Wednesday, anyone who doesn't behave out in Holland cannot be classed as a true Spurs supporter.

We were to have played the home leg first, but it has been switched to lessen the risk of innocent people being hurt should the away result go badly for us.

Not that I think it will.

Manager Keith Burkinshaw and first team coach Peter Shreeves have watched Ajax and we've been watching video tapes of their games.

They look to have some good young players but we haven't seen anything to frighten us.

Having said that, I think this could be the hardest tie for us because it will be our first one back in Europe and we will be feeling our way a bit.

Only two of our players — goalkeeper Ray Clemence and skipper Steve Perryman — actually have experience of playing in Europe at club level.

Before we come to that game though, we've got a League match against Wolves at Molineux on Saturday.

They've bought former Birmingham skipper Joe Gallagher to strengthen their defence, but we'll just be hoping to reproduce the kind of form we showed against them in our FA Cup semi-final replay earlier this year.

The following Saturday it's Everton at home and they seem to have a whole new side!

Last season we drew 2-2 with them home and away, but we won't be fearing them too much on our own pitch.

Three days after that we find ourselves away at Swansea and I think every team is going to find it difficult down at Vetch Field this season.

AJAX?

We haven't seen anything to frighten us

I can see Swansea doing quite well this year — maybe finishing in eighth or ninth position in the League with a good cup run to boot.

I've played at Swansea before and even in friendly matches they make it difficult for the opposition.

And their 5-1 win over Leeds on opening day brought back memories of Nottingham Forest when they came up from the Second Division and won the League!

Newcomers Notts County also got a great result on opening day — beating Villa at Villa Park.

Villa may find it tough this year because they are the Champions.

What with Liverpool losing and Ipswich only drawing at home there were quite a few shocks on the day of the big kick off, but that can only be good for football.

It was good for Spurs too, because while some of the top teams were dropping points we got off to a three pointer at Middlesbrough.

We had both Garth Crooks and Steve Archibald missing for that game, but we played very well.

Garry Brooke partnered Mark Falco up front and Paul Price came into the defence.

We didn't quite know how it would work out up front, but it went fabulously.

Middlesbrough don't seem to have any recognised star players any more, but I was quite impressed with their new Dutch lad Heine Otto who scored their goal.

It was good to see Mark Falco on the scoresheet again following his two goals in the Charity Shield against Villa at Wembley the week before.

Garth Crooks and Steve Archibald have taken a bit of ribbing about their future in the side!

The one disappointing thing that came out of the Charity Shield was that there was no winner. I think in a game like that — not in a cup final though — there should be extra time and if it's still stalemate, penalties to decide a winner.

See you in two weeks time . . .

OUTRAGED!

OUTRAGED at something concerning soccer? Then write and tell us about it.

But remember you risk the wrath of the Match referee.

If he disagrees with your point of view you may be booked or worse still sent off.

Just to soften the blow, a person who gets his marching orders wins £5 and those whose names are taken get £2.

Write to Outraged, Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough.

Lawrenson wants it easy

Sent off!
£5

I'M outraged with Mark Lawrenson for joining Liverpool. The Reds already have two international centre-backs in Phil Thompson and Alan Hansen and he'll ruin his career with Eire if he plays in the reserves.

Why on earth didn't he join my club Arsenal and team up with his Eire team mate David O'Leary.

Lawrenson just wants to get a medal the easy way next season by being the twelfth member of the Liverpool squad!

Kevin Humphreys (15), High Wycombe, Bucks.

● Naturally he wants to improve his chances of winning a medal this season — what player doesn't! But you are wrong if you believe he'd be happy to win a medal from the sidelines. Face facts Kevin — Liverpool are a better team to play for. You're off.

Lucky Villa!

I'M outraged at the publicity given to Aston Villa. Manager Ron Saunders won the Manager of the Year award, but he would never have been in the limelight if Villa had not won the championship. Gary Shaw and Peter Withe score most of their goals through luck.

Mark Attwood, Wall Heath, West Midlands.

● I wonder what the score was when Villa thrashed YOUR favourite team last season?

BIG mouth!

BEFORE you open your big mouth you should get your facts right. In reply to David 'Frog' Freeland's letter (Aug. 22) you said why not put the whole West Ham team out for the England games against Norway and Hungary. Well how can you do that when their right-back, Ray Stewart, is Scottish!

Robert Daley (14), Manor Park, London.

● I was only kidding Robert — it was a joke. You must be the only one who didn't get it!

Oscar for Ossie!

I think Ossie Ardiles should get an Oscar for acting. He would be better off in a swimming pool because he's always diving and getting penalties for nothing. I wish he would go back to Argentina.

Gary Dowden (13), Frome, Somerset.

● Well that explains everything. I'll be watching out for the halos next time I go to Elland Road. You are booked for trying to get rid of one of the most skilful players we have in this country.

A lesson for Withe

PETER Withe of Aston Villa could do with lessons on how to head a ball. Instead of striking the ball cleanly and guiding it downwards he hits the ball with brute force and doesn't mind where it goes. I could teach him a thing or two about heading.

Reza Moradi, Ealing, London.

● Well I'll teach you a lesson now — you're booked! Peter Withe is one of the best headers of a ball in the League and you're only moaning because he got two goals to deprive Spurs of victory in the Charity Shield.

What's wrong with Rotherham?

I fail to understand people who insist on supporting teams miles from their homes. My friend supports Ipswich, but what's wrong with Rotherham who I believe will do very well in Division Two this season?

Mark Edwards, Broadgate, Rotherham.

● There's nothing wrong with Rotherham, but your friend obviously prefers the marvellous football played by Ipswich.

Stratton

on Saturday

ASTON VILLA, Everton and West Ham all look set for home wins on Saturday at the expense of Manchester United, Brighton and Stoke.

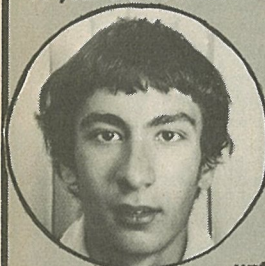

Disagree? Well, if you can beat me at my own game you can win £5.

Each week I'll be picking ten matches from up and down the country and forecasting a result for each one.

And each week everyone will get the chance to beat me.

But now, one lucky reader gets to see his or her predictions in print.

And my special guest this week is 14-year-old Dominic Potts (pictured), a Newcastle fan whose favourite player is Alan Shoulder. Dominic lives at Dunston, Tyne and Wear.

You can see his predictions alongside mine in the special panel.

Will he beat me? You'll have to wait until Saturday to find out.

If you would like the chance to see your forecasts in print, like Dominic, all you have to do is send in your name, age and address — together with a black and white photograph of yourself — and most importantly your HOME TELEPHONE NUMBER.

All the entries we receive will be kept in a special file and each week one lucky reader will be picked to compete against me in the magazine.

Points are awarded according to how accurate the predictions are and if you manage to score more than me you are a winner.

Send your entries to: Stratton on Saturday, Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough.

● BAD luck to my first challenger Wayne Gold of Mill Hill, London, who lost, three points to five, on the first Saturday of the season.

HERE are Paul Stratton's selected matches for this Saturday, together with those of his special guest opponent.

There's a space for you to fill in your forecasts and a column for the actual result.

Award yourself two points for every score you get right and one point if you get the result right (i.e. home win, away win, draw), but the scoreline wrong.

Carry your points total forward each week and at the end of the season you will know who the champion forecaster is.

GRATEFUL COMEBACK

BUSTLING Bobby Gould announced his soccer comeback at the age of 35 with two goals against Chelsea — the club that sacked him as assistant manager at the end of last season.

"I've scored a lot of goals in my career, but those two goals against Chelsea reserves were very sweet," says the much-travelled striker who has signed a one year contract with Third Division Wimbledon.

"It's not a question of being resentful of what happened at Chelsea, but it was nice to get on the goal trail again against some of the lads I coached at Stamford Bridge.

"I've no regrets about the Chelsea situation because it was great experience — even though I didn't see out my contract along with manager Geoff Hurst.

"I'm hoping the experience will stand me in good stead for the future when I hope to get back into management, but it's a matter of waiting for a situation to develop."

In the meantime, Bobby, scorer of 160 League goals with nine different clubs, will concentrate all his enthusiasm and energy into repaying the confidence shown in him by Wimbledon manager Dave Bassett.

"I've lost a little sharpness, but that will only return with match situations.

"When I made my farewell appearance for Hereford in September 1979 I thought I had hung up my boots for good.

"Mind you, there were occasions during Chelsea's lean spell last season when I felt like putting them back on, but Geoff Hurst wouldn't let me.

"After being player-coach with Bristol Rovers and Hereford and then assistant manager at Chelsea, it's great now to just concentrate solely on playing.

"I only hope I can justify the faith shown in me by Dave Bassett and the club."

Bobby Gould (right) pictured in happier times at Chelsea with manager Geoff Hurst.

Chance

"I'm very grateful to Dave and Wimbledon in giving me another chance in League football," says Bobby, whose last League appearance was for Hereford two years ago.

"I worked very hard on my own after losing my job at Chelsea because I didn't want to get out of shape after twenty years of keeping fit.

"Although I'm now 35, I still feel I've got something to offer to Wimbledon.

"I feel there is a great lack of experienced pros around at the moment. Maybe I'm not as quick as I was, but my brain might enable me to get into scoring positions which younger players might not see.

'I'll

NEW Carlisle United striker Bob Lee hopes his return to the north for a second time with manager Bob Stokoe will bring about a change of luck.

Stokoe signed Bob from Leicester for £200,000 five years ago when manager of Sunderland, and now he has re-signed the lanky striker from Bristol Rovers for a nominal £11,000.

In that time Bob's career has been up and down like a yo-yo, with the last two years being something of a nightmare.

His chapter of setbacks include:

● The shock of being told he could leave Rovers for a small fee, despite having two more years of his contract to run.

● A move to Second Division Charlton falling through when manager Mike Bailey moved to Brighton two days before he was set to sign.

"So I'm hoping my move to Carlisle will set me back on the road to the First Division again," says the 27-year-old forward.

"I didn't get to know Bob Stokoe very well at Sunderland because he resigned within weeks of signing me, but the possibility of playing with former Sunderland team mate Pop Robson attracted me to Carlisle.

"He's a great little striker and I hope we can produce the goods together and get Carlisle back into the Second Division.

"Having never played in the Third Division, I don't know what to expect, but there are some good players at Carlisle, so I'm hoping we can do well."

Bob certainly started on the right foot with four goals in the new Group Cup — his season's total with relegated Bristol Rovers last season!

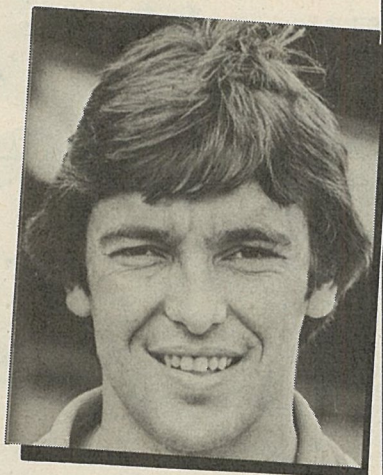

"Things didn't go too well at Rovers, what with the fire and a struggling side. We played some good football at times, but never had the best of luck.

"Even so, it was a bit of a shock when manager Terry Cooper said he was letting me go for a small fee because he had to prune the staff.

"But it looked as though everything would work out well when Charlton's Mike Bailey came in for me.

"Everything was set for me to stay in the Second Division with Charlton when suddenly Mike moved to Brighton and the deal fell through because new manager Alan Mullery obviously had his own ideas.

"I feel I'm still good enough to play in the top two divisions and I am out to prove it this season."

Bob Lee... hoping for a change of fortune at Carlisle.

BMX

THE RACE IS ON

BMX is the bike-racing sport that has swept across America. The action-packed event that's tougher, faster and more exciting than anything you've seen before.

Now Puch Murray and Halfords bring BMX to Britain. And there's never been a better time to take off with a brand-new sport.

Bicycle Motocross is no place for toy bikes or tame riding. You race on a dirt-track downhill course that really separates the men from the boys.

-THE HOTTEST THING ON TWO WHEELS!

On the left is an artists impression of a typical BMX track. It can have as many jumps, bends, hairpins and fast straights as you want.

Thunder down the straights, slam round the bends.

Fly over the hair-raising jumps at full speed.

Its a real test of your skill and courage.

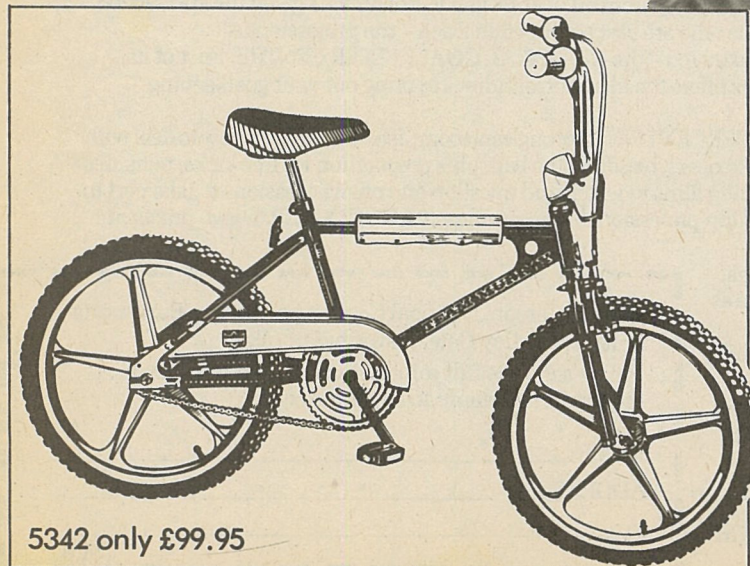

No other bike ride has the thrills of BMX.

ONLY THE BEST IS GOOD ENOUGH

If you thought any old bike would do for Bicycle Motocross you'd be wrong. Because most BMX courses are enough to shake any ordinary bike to bits.

When you race a motocross course you need a bike that's really hot.

That's why Puch Murray bikes are made for the job. They have 20" wheels with track-grabbing racing tyres. Cross-braced handlebars for extra strength. Even frames and forks are specially designed for competition riding.

Wolves made me so welcome

I HAD just been given tickets to see Wolves play Forest in the League Cup Final when I broke my leg!

I missed the Final because I was in hospital, but when I got out my parents wrote to Wolves, telling them of my misfortune.

The club invited me to their home match against Spurs and after the game I was taken to meet the Wolves players.

They showed me around the ground, gave me tickets for the next match . . . and presented me with an autographed football.

I will remember that day as long as I live.

Marc Dray, Wallingford, Oxon.

The atmosphere was great

MY most memorable day was when I went to Wembley with my team — Ladywood Boys.

We went to see England Schoolboys play Germany and although England lost 2-1 there was a great atmosphere.

One player I really enjoyed watching was David Kerslake. Adam Bullivant, Ilkeston, Derby.

WE asked you for your most memorable moment as a soccer fan and you flooded us with your letters. Here's a selection of those we received . . .

£10 WINNER

Just the ticket!

WHEN Ipswich Town reached the FA Cup Final in 1978 I was very hopeful of getting a ticket, but as everyone who has ever tried to get a Cup Final ticket knows, it isn't easy.

And when I caught chicken pox a week before the match I just about gave up hope.

But on the Friday a man rang my dad up and said he had two spare tickets — could we use them?

Naturally we said yes and watching Ipswich lift the cup was the greatest day of my life.

Malcolm Donovan, Kingsbridge, Devon.

MY DAY

MY most memorable day as a soccer fan was the day I went to see the 1978 European Cup Final between Liverpool and Bruges of Belgium at Wembley.

I was 12 at the time and it was the first time I had seen my favourite team, Liverpool, and the first time I had been to Wembley.

I came running home from school brimming with excitement because I just couldn't wait to get going.

My mum dropped myself and my dad off at the station and off we went.

As we approached Wembley we met more and more Liverpool fans on the train and they were all very friendly.

As we walked up Wembley Way the roar of L-I-V-E-R-P-O-O-L grew louder and louder.

Many Liverpool fans chatted with their Belgian counterparts and there was no sign of any trouble. It was just one big happy family.

I just can't explain how I felt when we went up to our seats and I looked out over the pitch.

Everywhere was red and the singing was just sheer magic. The atmosphere was fantastic.

To the outsider the game itself may not have seemed magic, but being there was completely different.

And to make it a perfect day Liverpool carried off the trophy for the second successive year.

It was a day in a million for me and I doubt I shall ever experience anything like it again.

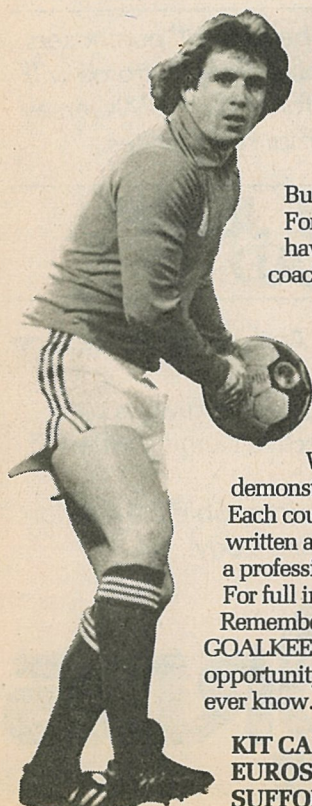

Philip Bigwood, Hockley, Essex.

IN A MILLION

A dream come true

MY dream experience came when, as a junior school player, myself and nine friends represented Roscoe in an annual seven-a-side tournament . . . at Anfield!

We reached the final, but eventually lost on penalties.

Even so it is one of my most treasured memories — especially touching the sign in the tunnel which says: "This is Anfield."

Sean Macklin (13), Liverpool 13.

My perfect present

ON my birthday in April I received a large brown envelope amongst my birthday cards. I opened it excitedly and it contained a photograph of my favourite team, Southampton, autographs of the players and a letter from manager Lawrie McMenemy. It was the best present I had ever had and truly made my day.

Richard Leighton, Stafford.

Write to us at: Terrace Talk, Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough PE1 1UB. We'll pay £2 for each letter we publish with a special prize of £10 for the star letter.

That final feeling

WOLVES had lost the first leg of the League Cup Semi-Final to Swindon Town in season 79-80 and we arrived at the second leg late.

The scoring went 1-0 . . . 1-1 . . . 2-1 . . . and then we went 3-1 up.

It seemed like an eternity to the final whistle, but when the referee finally blew for time I knew I was going to Wembley.

That must rate as the most memorable moment in my life

Richard Summersgill (16), Kinver, West Midlands.

Wonderful Wembley!

I NEVER thought it would happen, but there I was, sitting in a £12.50 seat at Wembley! You see I had a disease which made me very ill, but one of my dreams was to go to Wembley to watch England play and I was determined to do it.

Thanks to my dad and the teachers at my school (for allowing me time off) I finally made it to Wembley.

And with a bit of luck I'll be going to the FA Cup Final next year.

Karen Abbott (13), Melksham, Wilts.

Left: Sean Macklin and friends when they played at Liverpool's famous Anfield ground.

Channon gave me his shirt!

MY dad happened to be working across the road from Mike Channon's house one day and somehow he got talking to him.

Mike said if my dad took me to the next Saints match at The Dell he would give me something.

It was a night match against Wolves and Southampton beat them 2-1.

After the game, Mike came out to meet us and told me: "Come in the dressing room — I've got something for you."

I went in, met all the players, and then Mike gave me his number eight shirt!

I was speechless, but just managed to say thank-you.

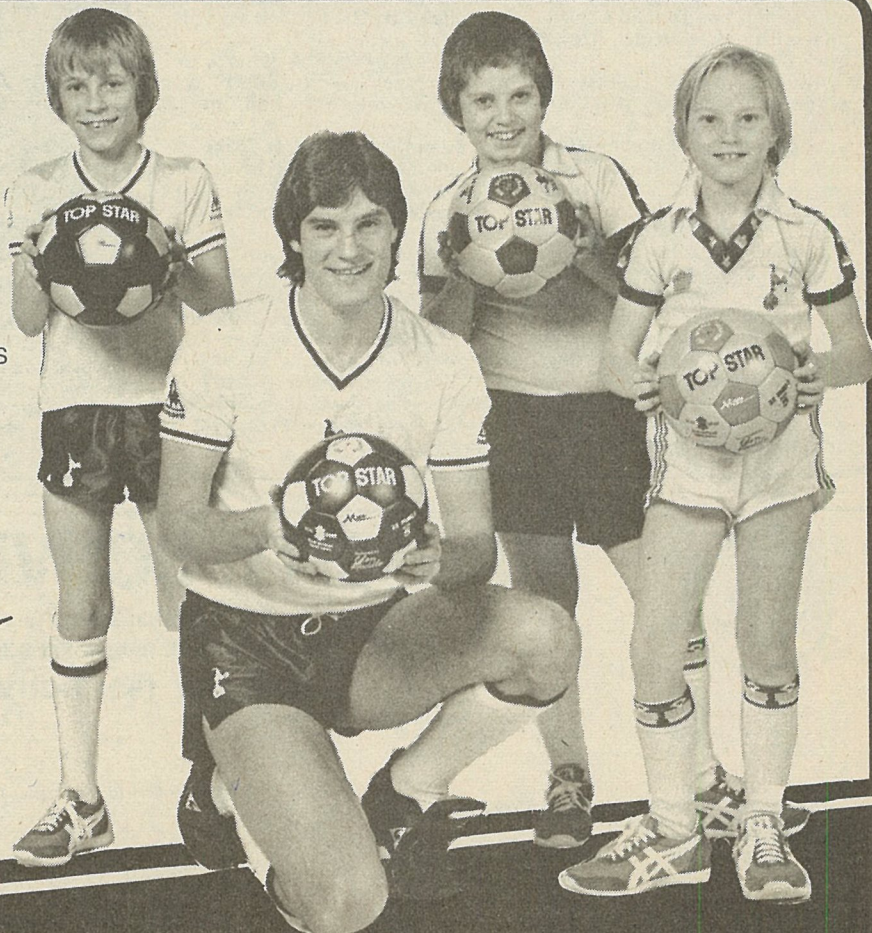

I remember I went to bed in the shirt that night. I'll never forget it.

Trevor Webb (13), Southampton.

Hot-shot McCoist admits 'I STILL HAVE A LOT TO LEARN'

'KEEP hitting the onion bag'... that was the unusual advice to Sunderland's £400,000 teenager Ally McCoist from fellow Scotsman Alan Brazil of Ipswich.

"I knew exactly what he meant," said the 18-year-old who was signed from St Johnstone just before the season started.

"And I was delighted when Alan came over and wished me luck and told me to keep scoring goals," said Ally, who came on as substitute in Sunderland's six goal thriller at Portman Road on the opening day of the season.

"It was a debut I'll never forget. The game lived up to all my expectations about English football.

"It was really exciting and a treat for the fans," added Ally, who set up Sunderland's third goal with a cheeky back-heel to Mick Buckley.

And the 3-3 draw against arguably the best team in the country confirmed the youngster's belief that he was right to turn down three other top clubs and join Alan Durban at Roker Park.

"Wolves, Middlesbrough and Glasgow Rangers all came in for me, but I believe there's fantastic potential at Sunderland.

"The manager is building up a strong young team and I reckon he's on the right lines to bring the club some success.

"I don't think we'll achieve it for a couple of years, but there's no doubt we're going places."

SPOTLIGHT on £400,000 scoring sensation Ally McCoist who turned down Glasgow Rangers, Middlesbrough and Wolves to join Sunderland.

Ally set the Scottish First Division alight last season with 23 goals in his first full campaign and seven goals in 10 Scottish youth appearances.

But it was always his ambition to make the grade south of the border.

"The English First Division is the best in the world and if you're ambitious it's the only place to play," he said.

It took him just that one appearance against Ipswich to realise why the English scene is best...

"The speed of the game is so much quicker — you don't have time to dwell on the ball," he said.

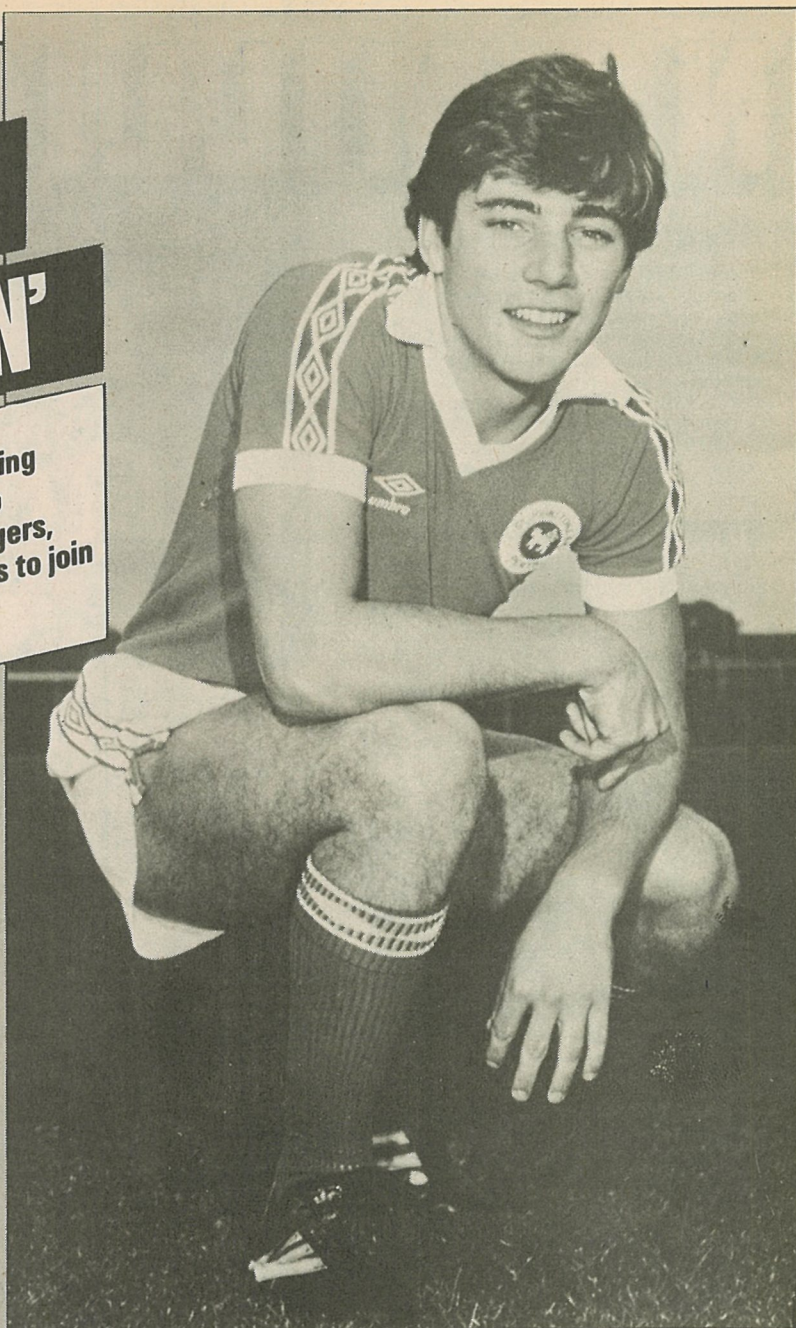

Even though former Stoke manager Alan Durban invested a large amount of money he won't be rushing Ally into first team action.

"The boss has told me that he'll ease me in gently — I'm still very raw and have a lot to learn."

And one facet of his game that Ally hopes to improve on is his strength in the air.

"I'm not too good with my head — I've always recognised my true ability is with my feet," he admitted.

Ally McCoist —
"The English
First Division is the best in the world and if you are ambitious it's the only place to play."

The shoe that won't give your opponents the edge.

Introducing Europa Cup, a new soccer shoe developed by adidas to make the game safer as well as faster.

Leather uppers and a special lightweight sole mean Europa Cup is one of the lightest soccer shoes on the market.

Widely placed studs on a light, flexible polyamide sole give you a firm platform from which to run and kick.

A new kind of toe-box construction gives you great stability while allowing your foot very close contact with the ball.

Our unique new safety stud. Because it is made in two layers with the softer material on the tip, no dangerous sharp edges can be formed to cause cuts and tears.

MIKE MAKES DAD SO PROUD

MIKE Baxter, Middlesbrough's new £465,000 centre half, can now ring up his father in Scotland and announced with glowing pride: "I'm playing at Liverpool tomorrow."

It makes a pleasant change for the former Preston defender who used to feel somewhat inadequate when asked by his father: "Where are you playing tomorrow, son."

"We're at Exeter," used to come the rather sheepish reply.

It was not a matter of belittling tiny Exeter, but you see his father, Bill, spent all his football career in the First Division with Wolves and Aston Villa, and 24-year-old Mike was desperate to follow in his footsteps.

"When I told him that Middlesbrough wanted to sign me, he said: 'Don't hesitate, son. The First Division is the place to be.'"

"There had been a lot of paper talk about First Division clubs being interested in me, but as far as I know, Middlesbrough were the first club to move in," says Mike, who joined Preston as an apprentice.

"Some people thought I should have bided my time and waited for one of the really big clubs to move in.

"But there was no guarantee that would happen.

Middlesbrough's new signing Mike Baxter tells Melvyn Beck how he grabbed his chance of First Division football.

"Anyway, Middlesbrough are a First Division club and I was most impressed by the views and ideas of Bobby Murdoch.

"There was just no way I was going to let this chance pass me by. It's every player's ambition to play in the First Division, and one hell of a lot of them never get the chance."

And there's no chance of Mike being worried by the near £½ million price tag.

"I know it seems a big fee, but that's the way the transfer market is nowadays," says Mike, who has been likened to former Middlesbrough favourite Stuart Boam.

"It's going to seem strange playing at places like Anfield and Old Trafford after spending all my time in the Second and Third Divisions, but I don't think I shall be overawed.

"At this stage I'm simply looking to go out and enjoy myself in the First Division and try to establish myself as a first team player."

Mike might well have been with one of the glamour clubs now had his brother, Stuart, not been with Preston when they offered him apprentice professional terms.

"Dad was managing East Fife at the time and I received offers from the likes of Manchester United and Chelsea.

"But with my brother being at Preston and knowing the area, I decided to sign for them.

"I've no regrets now, but if I had my time over again, I would have probably gone elsewhere."

He was given his League debut at 17 by manager Bobby Charlton, but it was in the past three or four years that he established himself as one of the top defenders outside the First Division under the management of Nobby Stiles.

Mike Baxter — "There was no way I was going to let a First Division chance pass me by."

STAR GALLERY

WEST Ham's England international Alan Devonshire is the favourite of German reader Lutz Tacke of Lohne. "He's very good at holding the ball," says Lutz.

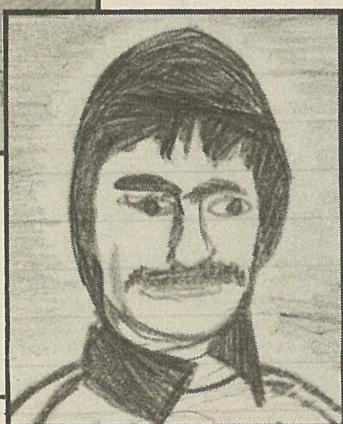

ASTON Villa's Scottish midfield fighter Des Bremner never stops running, according to Steven Hewlitt of Erdington, Birmingham.

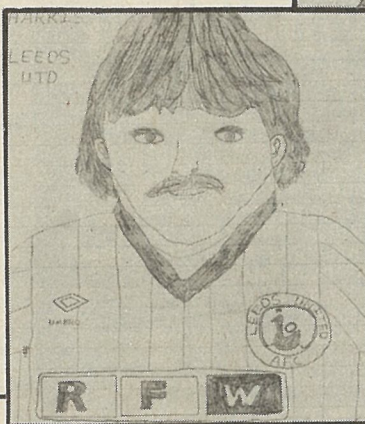

DES BREMNER

RIGHT: Dundee United's long serving goalkeeper Hamish McAlpine deserves a place in 'Star Gallery' because: "He's so cool and calm," says R. Bell of Laceby, Grimsby, Humberside.

COVENTRY'S 'old pals act' gave new manager Dave Sexton his most prized scalp of the season.

Dave, who was sacked by United in the close season, saw revenge quickly exacted when his exciting youngsters beat the multi-million pound outfit 2-1 on the opening day with goals from golfing partners Steve Whitton and Peter Bodak.

Match winner Peter admitted: "The manager didn't show his true feelings afterwards, but all the players could tell he was absolutely delighted.

"We were well aware of the hard time he'd had at Old Trafford and we were determined to do our best for him," said Peter.

Converted striker Steve shot Coventry ahead after just 10 minutes when he rounded the United defence and beat keeper

Old pals act for Sexton

Gary Bailey.

But the points clincher came from precocious winger Peter, who re-directed a Gerry Daly shot into the net just after half-time.

The two goalscorers joined Coventry on schoolboy forms at the same time and they've been firm friends ever since.

"We're both golf fanatics so we often play against each other," said Peter.

"The result against United was a great one for us. The players knew exactly how important it was to get an early win under our belts."

OPENING

Latchford leaves Leeds gasping

IT was a day of firsts at the Vetch Field as Swansea crushed Leeds 5-1.

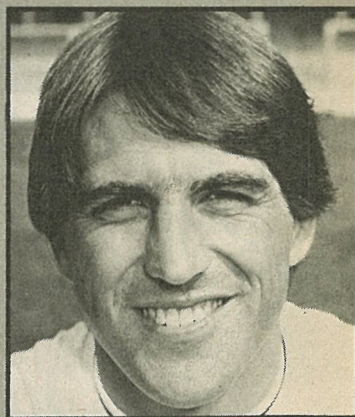

New £150,000 striker Bob Latchford scored the FIRST hat-trick of the season, on his FIRST League appearance for the club in what was their FIRST game in the First Division.

So what a day for the former England striker who has moved down to the Welsh valleys from Everton.

"I was very happy to get on the score sheet in the first game, but it was a great all-round team performance which helped me get the goals," says Bob.

"The chances went into the back of the net which is most important. How they go in doesn't matter," added Bob, who scored his fourth goal of the season as Swansea beat Brighton 2-1 three days later.

"Swansea have a lot of quality

Bob Latchford of Swansea — hat trick on opening day.

players and we like to play attacking football and entertain the fans."

Talking about his move from Merseyside, Bob adds: "I think I needed a fresh challenge after seven years at Everton and with Swansea having raced from the Fourth to the First Division, the move was ideal for me."

McCulloch's Villa-killer

NEWLY-promoted Notts County produced the major shock of the opening day with their 1-0 defeat of reigning champions Aston Villa at Villa Park.

The vital goal came after 24 minutes from the head of former Kilmarnock striker Iain McCulloch who was making his first appearance in Division One.

It came from a right wing corner taken by Paul Hooks, and, according to Iain, it was all planned.

"We had been working hard on set pieces and as soon as the corner swung over I knew it was going to be mine," he said.

"Usually I hang outside the far post, but on this occasion I could see it was going to drop short so I moved in.

"Des Bremner stopped as I moved and so I had a clear header and managed to send it just inside the post.

"It was a great day for the club to win at the home of the champions, and there's no doubt the First Division is the place to be.

"That atmosphere was absolutely tremendous and I'm really looking forward to the rest of the season."

DAY HEROES

THE new soccer season burst into life on opening day with a series of 'shock' results.

First Division newcomers Swansea thrashed Leeds 5-1 . . . Stoke stole away from Arsenal's Highbury fortress with three points . . . newly-promoted Notts County beat Champions Aston Villa . . . and 'home grown' Coventry humbled multi-million pound Manchester United.

Here we turn the spotlight on some of the men who grabbed the headlines . . .

LEE Chapman's opening day matchwinner against Arsenal made for double celebrations in the Stoke dressing room.

Not only did it earn his side three points — it ended the longest unbeaten home record in the First Division.

Arsenal had not lost a League match at Highbury since January 12, 1980, when they went down 1-0 to Leeds.

But that 29-game sequence came to grief with the new season just 45 minutes old . . .

Hero of the day Lee told Match: "It's always important to get off to a good start and that first result was superb.

"Willie Young had the ball about 30 yards out from the Arsenal goal when Adrian Heath caught him out.

"The ball squirmed off to me and I pushed

Double cheer for Chapman

it through a gap between Willie and David O'Leary.

"I ran on with the ball and although Arsenal keeper Pat Jennings came out to narrow the angle I just managed to squeeze it past him.

"Although that was the only goal of the game we should really have wrapped up the points long before the final whistle, but we missed a couple of chances.

"The manager had got us really sharp for the big kick-off and I think we were the fitter side.

"I'm sure we are going to surprise a few more people this term.

"On the day I think they missed Frank Stapleton. They definitely need a target man because his former partner Alan Sunderland didn't look half the player he can be."

On a personal note, Lee's just hoping that he can continue to find the net . . .

"I scored 17 goals last season and I'm certainly looking to improve on that — my target is to score between 25 and 30 goals this time around."

Stoke's Lee Chapman (inset) and in action as he flies in against Arsenal's Willie Young at Highbury. Lee's goal ended the 'Gunners' long unbeaten home run.

Action all the way as Everton striker Peter Eastoe (8) dives past the flying boot of Birmingham defender David Langan (2) to opening day victory over the 'Blues' at Goodison Park. This marvellous picture stops the action a split-second before the ball hits the net.

That GOAL-DEN FEELING!

BELOW: Sheffield Wednesday hero Terry Curran steals a backward glance at his team mates, but all eyes in the delighted crowd are on the striker himself as he soaks up the adulation after scoring the only goal of the game to give his side three points against Blackburn Rovers at Ewood Park.

RIGHT: Oh yes! Fists clenched, Ipswich Town's remarkable goalscoring midfielder John Wark leaves no one in doubt about how he feels after scoring his side's first goal in their 3-3 draw with Sunderland at Portman Road.

SOCCERSCOPE

Presents PONTIN'S SOCCER WEEK

IN ASSOCIATION WITH SOUTHAMPTON F.C.

FROM MIDDAY TUESDAY 13 APRIL
TO 11am SUNDAY 18 APRIL 1982

LAWRIE McMENEMY SAYS: I am pleased to be associated with Pontins/Soccerscope week because it gives young children the opportunity to combine a holiday whilst practising their hobby. There is nothing better than learning about your sport from A-Z and to be taught by good teachers. Soccerscope in conjunction with Pontins enables youngsters to get the right start in their football career at very reasonable prices. They can enjoy themselves and learn the basics which will set them on their way and if they are conscientious enough they will be able to practice when they leave the camp. Parents can rest assured that their children will be well supervised and well cared for and I would certainly recommend this sort of soccer holiday.

Lawrie McMenemy

SOCCERSCOPE gives young players the opportunity to improve their basic soccer skills, at the same time making their stay both exciting and rewarding. Soccerscope employ a senior coaching adviser with many years' experience looking after residential groups.
